filePro Developer Program

We are introducing filePro 5.7 Developer Kit(s) that you, as a developer, may purchase at a heavily discounted buy-in price providing you meet our expectations. To qualify for these kits you must be a developer (not end user) who has or will develop and support an application(s) that you will be selling or marketing to end user customers. This developer or company will be seeking new filePro customers and upgrading their current customers to the 5.7 filePro products. To qualify for these kits you will need to maintain an annual purchasing level (see below) to maintain this classification. If this level is not maintained then you can opt to another (lower level); however, you will forfeit the benefits provided under this plan.

The commitment level will start on the purchase date of the "Developer Kit" and expire twelve month from that date. Should the Developer NOT meet the commitment level, they will have the option of renewing all or only the licenses for those products they wish to continue to use. This renewal price will be the current annual fee plus the discount paid but not earned during the year. If the commitment level is met, the license will automatically renew upon payment of the annual fee.
